

BARGAINING UPDATE - TENTATIVE AGREEMENT

Your bargaining committee is pleased to inform you that a tentative agreement has been reached with the employer for the renewal of the collective agreement.

The bargaining committee will unanimously recommend the acceptance of this tentative agreement to the membership.

No details will be shared at this time, and we will not be responding to questions regarding the content of the agreement. All information will be presented during the ratification meetings.

Following the holiday period, members will be informed of the dates of the ratification meetings, where the full details of the tentative agreement will be explained and where all members will have the opportunity to ask questions before voting.

We sincerely thank all members for their solidarity, patience, and support throughout this bargaining process.

Happy Holidays to everyone,

Together we stand.

In solidarity,

The Bargaining Committee – Bell Clerical and Associated Group
